The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A detached bungalow situated in the popular beautiful coastal village of Aberporth and just 1.3 miles to Tresaith beach and the Ceredigion coastal path. Within easy reach of the village school and amenities. To the front of the property there are sea views, overlooking Aberporth and to the right you can see Ynys Lochtyn. This would make a wonderful family home.

The accommodation briefly comprises, an entrance glass fronted porch, a great spot for keeping potted plants! There is an entrance hall with storage cupboard and door to the left into the dining room, where there are sea views. An arched opening leads into the kitchen which benefits from matching wall and base units. There is a generous sized living room (approx. 14'4" x 19'5"), built in shelving, feature fireplace with solid fuel boiler installed. There are also patio doors giving access to the front of the property, allowing natural light to flood though, and making the most of the view.

From the living room there is a door into a double bedroom which benefits from built in wardrobes. There is a further reception room, currently used as a living room but could be utilised as a fourth bedroom. Along the hallway there are a further two double bedrooms, one of which with has a walk in dressing room, the other has a built-in wardrobe and patio doors to the front. There are two bathrooms, both with separate bath and shower. Running along the back of the property there is a sizeable sunroom which can be accessed through the reception room or the kitchen. This offers a great spot to sit and relax.

Externally, the property is accessed via a tarmacadam driveway offering parking for several vehicles. There is a raised lawn area where the best of the view can be seen. The rear garden can be accessed via either side of the property. There is a useful storage shed, and raised lawn with wall border. Additionally, there is an extra piece of ground to the left of the house that could be cleared and incorporated into the main garden. Viewing highly recommended !

The sea side village of Aberporth is located 6.5 miles North-east of Cardigan. Originally a fishing village Aberporth boasts two sandy beaches, one of which is open to dog walking all year round and both are popular beaches for swimming, surfing and sailing. Rock pools are exposed at low tides and the famous bottle nose dolphins of Cardigan Bay are frequent visitors to this picturesque bay. The Ceredigion Coastal Path runs through the village making this a popular venue with walkers. The village benefits from; a primary and two nursery schools, several beach cafes, a community hall offering an indoor weekly market (arts & crafts/produce), an art studio and gallery, a pub, takeaway restaurants, chemist & post office and a village shop.

DIRECTIONS

Head out of Cardigan along the A487 north. At the roundabout in Blaenannerch turn left for Aberporth. Take the first exit at the next roundabout and follow the road towards Parcllyn. Continue along the road going passed the two beaches until you reach the mini-roundabout. Take the third exit turning right on the roundabout, continuing along the road and take the next left sign posted Ffordd Tresaith. Continue along the road for a short distance and the property will be on your right hand side, denoted by our for sale board.
