Situated on a no-through road and sited above the historic village of Drefach Felindre, this charming end of terraced cottage faces South-West with far reaching and elevated views. Benefitting from a garden to the side and terraced to the rear, a detached garage / workshop with planning permission granted for a dwelling (Lapsed in 2015), and ample off-road parking, this property would be suited for a growing family or multigenerational use, especially with the village having many local amenities including a regular bus service to nearby towns of Cardigan and Carmarthen and the stunning Cardigan Bay Coastline a short drive away.

Entering the property via the canopied front veranda and through the front door into the hallway, there are stairs to the first floor and doors leading to the lounge and kitchen. The lounge features a wood-burning stove sitting on a slate hearth and windows to the front. The kitchen/diner is found in the modern extension, this is a light and airy space with a modern fitted kitchen, benefitting from matching wall and base units, under cabinet lighting, tiled splash backs, various built in appliances including dishwasher a fridge and double oven and grill, a gas hob and a bowl sink with a views over the valley below.

The dining area has a feature fireplace surround with a tiled hearth and space to install a woodburning stove. There is a seating area with plenty of space for a dining table, glazed doors lead out to the side porch (which gives access to the side and rear garden), and there is a door to the utility room, a practical space, with storage cupboards and a worktop with plumbing available for a washing machine and space for a freestanding freezer. A sliding door leads to the downstairs W/C and a stable door leads to the rear of the house.

On the first floor is a landing suitable to use as a seating or study area, there is storage and handy built-in airing cupboards and doors leading to the three double bedrooms and family bathroom. The bedrooms are all doubles with the master benefitting from built-in storage in the eaves and views across the village. The bathroom has a freestanding bath, a shower cubicle, a wash hand basin and a toilet, tiled walls, and two skylight windows.

Externally there is a driveway to the front of the detached garage/workshop. This adaptable building is suitable for a multitude of potential uses, having had planning granted for a dwelling (Lapsed 2015 - Reference: W/22684) it could be converted into a self-contained annexe (STPC) or alternatively as it has an inspection pit, two store rooms to the rear and a mezzanine area, electricity, light, sockets and water, this could be utilised for a mechanic/home maintenance enthusiast or secure storage of vehicles.

Steps to the side of the garage lead up to an elevated garden area with spectacular far-reaching views over the village and landscape beyond, with patio terraced areas, a garden shed with power points, lawn areas and various seating spaces this is a wonderful place to sit and relax throughout the year!

Double gates lead from the driveway to a further parking area for another 2/3 cars. This area is fenced with another gate and pretty wooden archway leading into the main garden. The side garden is a level space with gravel pathways leading to the side porch entrance to the house, it features a variety of pretty flower borders and small shrubs, low maintenance astro-turf and a very useful block-built garden shed currently used as sauna and workshop (purchase of sauna negotiable) with quarry-tiled flooring and doors on each end, with power, light and connected water this space has the potential to be a lovely garden room or home office with minimal alteration. There is a wood store and the path leading to the rear of the house and utility room.

Viewing highly recommended to fully appreciate what it has to offer !
