Conveniently located in the heart of Cardigan, a vibrant market town offering a wide range of amenities, this charming end-of-terrace character property features two double bedrooms, a distinctive low maintenance garden, and a wealth of traditional details. Highlights include vaulted ceilings with rustic A-frames, exposed beams, and a welcoming wood-burning stove that forms the cosy centrepiece of the open-plan living area.

The accommodation is accessed directly from the pavement, leading into a semi-open plan dining and living area, subtly divided by a bespoke wooden partition. The dining area offers ample space for a table and chairs, while the living area is centred around a wood-burning stove set atop a substantial slate hearth. Two front-facing windows provide views over the bustling town surroundings.

At the rear of the property, an opening leads to the kitchen, which features matching cottage-style wall and base units, a gas range cooker, and a coordinating extractor hood. This bright and airy space benefits from rear-facing windows and a roof light, allowing natural light to pour in. From the kitchen, there is access to a practical utility room and a cloakroom/WC.

A door from the dining room leads to the enclosed staircase, which rises to the first-floor landing. Here, you will find two spacious double bedrooms, each featuring vaulted ceilings with exposed A-frames, built-in storage cupboards, and windows overlooking the front of the property. The bathroom is fitted with a bath and shower over, a heated towel rail, and benefits from part-tiled walls for a stylish and practical finish.

Externally there is a low-maintenance enclosed garden that reveals the original slate rock face, carved out many years ago to create space for the house — a striking reminder of the area's impressive geology. The garden features a covered seating area and an intricate mosaic patio floor, creating a charming sun trap ideal for relaxing or entertaining. This unique outdoor space perfectly complements the vibrant character of this delightful home.
