The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Located in the popular coastal village of Aberporth, this charming semi-detached bungalow is just a short walk from beautiful beaches and local amenities. The property offers two bedrooms, two reception rooms, and oil-fired central heating—making it an ideal home or holiday retreat.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance porch, providing a practical space for storing shoes and coats, leading through to a welcoming hallway. The living room features a fireplace with a gas fire and opens into a bright and airy conservatory, perfect for relaxing. The modern kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units, offering ample storage and a convenient breakfast seating area. There is also an integral dishwasher, fridge and freezer. From here, there is access to the rear of the property and a useful utility room which houses the oil boiler. The bungalow offers two bedrooms, including a master, and a contemporary shower room fitted with a walk-in shower, wash basin, and WC.

Externally, the front of the property features a low-maintenance gravel area, ideal for displaying potted plants. This extends around to the side, where there is potential to create a pond—previously used by the current owners to keep carp.

To the rear, there is generous off-road parking for several vehicles and access to a useful outbuilding, currently used for storage. Beyond the outbuilding, you'll find another gravelled space that would make an ideal low-maintenance seating.

The seaside village of Aberporth is located 6.5 miles North-east of Cardigan. Originally a fishing village Aberporth boasts two sandy beaches, one of which is open to dog walking all year round and both are popular beaches for swimming, surfing and sailing. Rock pools are exposed at low tides and the famous bottle nose dolphins of Cardigan Bay are frequent visitors to this picturesque bay. The Ceredigion Coastal Path runs through the village making this a popular venue with walkers. The fireworks display each November is a popular event. The village benefits from; a primary and nursery school, beach cafe, a pub, an Indian, Chinese and chip takeaway, chemist and a village shop.

DIRECTIONS

Head out of Cardigan along the A487 north. At the roundabout in Blaenannerch turn left for Aberporth. Take the first exit at the next roundabout and follow the road round towards Aberporth. Continue along the road going passed the two beaches until you reach the mini-roundabout. Take the third exit turning right on the roundabout, continue along the road for a short distance, take the next right and then take the first right into Brynglas. Follow the road and the property is the second bungalow on your left, denoted by our for sale board. What three words
