The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

This delightful terraced home, built in the early 1900s, is full of character and charm. Situated in the picturesque village of Cilgerran, just 3.3 miles from the popular market town of Cardigan, the property showcases many period features, including high ceilings, an elegant oak staircase, and decorative external window surrounds to the front.

As you enter the property, you're welcomed by a small vestibule — perfect for storing coats and shoes. This leads through to the inviting living room. This space features a charming bay window and room for a dining table, making it ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. A glass-panelled door opens to the rear hallway and the kitchen, fitted with a range of wall and base units and a window overlooking the rear garden. The characterful staircase leads to the first floor, where you'll find a double bedroom with two windows overlooking the front of the property, as well as a separate and useful storage room. The bathroom features stylish patterned floor tiles and a bath with a shower over, combining practicality with a touch of charm.

The rear garden is accessed via a door from the hallway. Immediately outside, there is a practical area with ample space for bin storage or additional seating. Steps lead up to an elevated patio bordered by mature shrubs, providing a pleasant spot for outdoor relaxation. Towards the back, the garden is mainly laid to lawn. The garden offers a great spot to sit and relax.
