A charming and secluded four bedroom property located in an elevated position with wonderful countryside views and overlooking the village below. The property benefits from off road parking, a detached garage, and a surrounding garden. This would make an ideal family home.

The homely accommodation briefly comprises, an entrance hallway, living room with sliding glass doors leading into the conservatory allowing the natural light to spill into the property. There is a kitchen diner with fitted wall and base units along with a separate utility area with a door out to the rear of the property. Along the hallway there is a bathroom and four bedrooms, one being the master with an ensuite shower room., which has underfloor heating.

Externally, the property is approached via a tarmacadam driveway with a border of mature shrubs and flower beds. The driveway offers off road parking for several vehicles as well as access to the detached garage benefiting from power and lighting. The garden is approximately 0.6 of an acre. To the front there is a decking area, the perfect spot to sit and enjoy your morning coffee! There are steps to the right of the property that lead to the top of the garden that is laid mainly to lawn, with mature shrubs and trees. This is where the best of the views can be seen.

Drefach Felindre is situated 4.2 miles east of the market town of Newcastle Emlyn. Home to the National Wool Museum, Drefach Felindre is a village steeped with Welsh woolen history! The village also benefits from local shops, post office, locksmiths, and furniture warehouse. The town of Newcastle Emlyn benefits, supermarkets, restaurants and coffee shops, banks, a primary and secondary school, swimming pool, leisure centre, several public houses and many independent shops and the larger town of Carmarthen is only 15.3 miles away.
