New Street, Upton upon Severn, Worcestershire, WR8 0HP

The Old Pump House

Location & Description

Upton upon Severn is an historic riverside town serving a wide rural catchment area with a thriving tourist industry, due to hosting many well known festivals throughout the year. The town offers a good variety of shops, pubs and restaurants alongside a Doctors surgery with pharmacy and dentist, a library and rugby club to name but a few.

Located approximately 8 miles from Malvern, 10 miles from Worcester and 6 miles from Tewkesbury. Access to Junction 1 of the M50 is approximately 3 miles distant which links to the M5 motorway. There are mainline railway stations located at Pershore, Worcester and Malvern with direct links to London for the commuter.

Property Description

The Old Pump House is a unique and unusual detached property located in a central position within the town, yet commanding open views over green space and towards the Malvern Hills in the distance adding to the appeal. The building was originally built to house two steam engines and operated as Upton's main pump house until around 1970.

This attractive, brick built Victorian home has benefited from extensive and thoughtful refurbishment over recent years to offer modern, light & open plan living with a spacious living/dining area, a modern and well fitted bespoke kitchen, a downstairs WC and rear hallway with storage. On the first floor there are two En-suite double bedrooms. Further benefits include cellar storage, UPVC double glazing, gas central heating and ample parking. The mature landscaped garden offers a lawned area and patio seating area to dine "Al Fresco" with family and friends and take in the evening sun setting over the Malvern Hills.

The property is approached from New Street, through private, electric gates, into an attractive gravelled parking area with an attractive stone centre circle feature. There is ample parking for several vehicles. Reclaimed brick steps lead to the pump houses's original front door, circa 1908, with decorative arch glass panelling above and reclaimed bulk-head lighting to either side.

Front Entrance

Original refurbished wooden front double door with arched glass panel over. Reclaimed brick steps leading to door. Lantern lights lighting up the steps and reclaimed bulk head lights (originally from the bomb factory in Hereford) either side of the door.
