This development of 20 villas under construction, offers premium security systems throughout the domain, ensuring optimal safety and protection in the heart of unspoiled nature. The exclusivity of these estates starts with secured access to each villa. Owners and their authorised guests will first pass the secured entrance of Roca Llista, then, through the manned security gate, permitting access to the domain from where, private roads lead to each villa which is entered via a personalised security system. Each property sits on a plot of minimum 1.500 sq.m. with complete privacy from neighbouring residences. The building density has been kept minimal so that each villa magically coexists in this beautiful and privileged environment
