Description

Pentre Cerrig Bach dates from the 1920s and sits within an idyllic position in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the beautiful village of Maeshafn. The interior provides family sized accommodation with an abundance of original features and huge scope to create a home of character during the modernisation. The property enjoys a secluded setting off a private lane with views over open countryside to the Clwydian hills. The market town of Mold lies 4½ miles to the north east providing a wide range of amenities including shopping and schooling, Ruthin along with its schools is 15 minutes away. The A55 expressway is 7 miles away meaning Chester is a 30 minute drive, with Liverpool less than an hour and Manchester just over an hour.

Accommodation

The property is approached via a concrete driveway which provides ample parking for multiple vehicles, leading to a timber exterior door with stained glass window and two glazed side panels.

Exterior

The property is approached via a driveway which has parking space for a number of vehicles and provides access to the outbuildings and gates leading onto the land. To the rear of the property is a section of woodland which could be cleared to create another garden area.

Stables/ Outbuildings

The large stone barn is in need of updating but it adjoins the house and perhaps offers huge potential during the redevelopment. The thick stone walls predate the rest of the house by centuries.

Land

To the rear of the property is a wooded area and a field to the side and front of the property. The land included with the property amounts to 2.2 acres to include the paddock to the front and side of the property and small woodland to the rear.

Village

The picturesque and rural village of Maeshafn is in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and a sought-after address. Moel Findeg and Aberduna nature reserve lay either side of the village and offer breath-taking views of Moel Fammau and the Clwydian Range. The property is within walking distance from the local pub The Miners Arms. There is an abundance of footpaths, walking and cycling routes available from the doorstep and also a regular bus route through the village which can take you to Ruthin or Mold.
