About the property

A beautiful two bedroom penthouse apartment together with allocated parking space and private roof terrace offering stunning views.

The property features a large reception room, which is of a good size with floor to ceiling windows and bi-fold doors leading to the private roof terrace with far reaching rooftop views. There is then an open plan modern kitchen with integrated appliances, two double bedrooms with built in wardrobes and a good size bathroom with both bath and shower.

West View is located in central Hove and is within a short walking distance to Hove Station. Church Road with all of its amenities and the seafront are also close by.

Available middle August.
