About the property

Tucked away on Lower Market Street, this newly refurbished two-bedroom house offers modern living in a central yet peaceful location. Just steps from the lively Western Road and moments to the seafront, this hidden gem combines convenience with coastal charm.

The property boasts a contemporary finish throughout, starting with a bright kitchen, complete with ample worktop space and essential white goods. The adjoining living area is perfect for relaxing or entertaining, with French doors leading out to a patio courtyard, ideal for al fresco dining or a quiet retreat.

Upstairs, the main bedroom provides a comfortable and serene space, while the second bedroom features a unique bunk-style bed with plenty of room underneath, perfect for a study or play area. The family bathroom, also on this floor, is sleek and functional, offering a bath with an overhead shower.

With its blend of modern touches, excellent location, and unique layout, this property is perfect for anyone seeking a central yet peaceful home by the coast.
