About the property

This rare semi-detached three-bedroom house on Church Street offers spacious living in the heart of Brighton. Spanning three storeys, the property is both stylish and functional, with a blend of modern design and characterful charm.

You step directly into the living room, a bright and welcoming space ideal for relaxation or entertaining. At the rear of the ground floor is the kitchen, complete with modern fittings and direct access to a private courtyard garden—perfect for outdoor dining or unwinding.

The first floor features a double sized bedroom, as well as the bathroom. On the top floor, you'll find two further bedrooms. A private terrace adds further outdoor enjoyment, providing a peaceful spot in the city.

Located just moments from Brighton's shops, cafes, and cultural landmarks, this home is a unique find. Its semi-detached design ensures privacy and space, a rare feature in this vibrant area.

The property is offered furnished and is available for a long term let.
