About the property

This stunning top-floor flat boasts sea views and an abundance of natural light throughout. Ideally situated just a short walk from Brighton Station, it offers both convenience and excellent transport links—perfect for commuters and city living.

Upon entering the apartment, you're greeted by a bright and open reception area. The space includes a well-equipped kitchen with room to plumb in a washing machine and access to a sleek, modern shower room and the bedroom.

Newly refurbished and available now, the apartment combines character and practicality, making it a perfect cosy place to relax in Brighton's most desirable neighbourhoods.
