About the property

This charming and well-presented one-bedroom flat is ideally situated on Lansdowne Street, a quiet residential road just off Western Road and moments from the popular Palmeira Square. The location offers an excellent balance of convenience and lifestyle, with a wide range of shops, cafes, and restaurants right on your doorstep, as well as easy access to public transport and the seafront just a short stroll away.

Inside, the flat features a spacious living area with ample room for both lounge and dining furniture, making it a comfortable and versatile space for everyday living. The bedroom is generous in size and faces out towards the garden area. The separate kitchen opens directly onto a private patio garden, which enjoys plenty of sunshine throughout the day.

Offered unfurnished and available now, this property is perfect for a single professional or couple seeking a bright and well-located home in one of Hove's most sought-after areas. The flat is due to undergo some redecorations.
