ACTON - HEART OF WEST LONDON

“WEST LONDON’S BEST KEPT SECRET!” Shhh!

NESTLED BETWEEN THE VIBRANT COMMUNITIES OF SHEPHERDS BUSH & CHISWICK

Acton is named from the Old English word “Oak Town”. From its illustrious beginnings, in the seventeenth and eighteenth century, the area was mostly used as a summer residence by the gentry. So the arrival of the railway in 1853 started a mass influx of people. Industrialisation followed in the 1920’s with car manufacture, ‘Napier,’ food production and laundry services nicknaming it ‘Soap Suds Island’. It is one of the city’s most exciting up-and-coming hotspots.

It is now largely a cosmopolitan residential hub capitalising on its exceptional transport links in and out of the capital.
