A large three bedroom home in an excellent location convenient for the many shops, bars, restaurants, cafes and transport links of Northfield Avenue.

The property itself is a fantastic size with the ground floor incorporating an impressive living room with huge amounts of space made even more bright and airy by the large bay windows, a second reception/dining room, a shower room, an eat it kitchen which also provides plenty of cupboard space and storage and provides access to the private garden. The first floor has three bedrooms, with the master bedroom having stairs up to an additional room perfect for using as a walk in wardrobe, a study or additional storage space
