This large, ground floor, two double bedroom property set within a period conversion is perfectly positioned for West Ealing Mainline Station and Northfields Tube Station as well as the bus routes offered by Uxbridge Road, and only moments from the shops and cafés of Northfield Avenue.

The property itself has been well maintained throughout and includes two double bedrooms, an impressive living room made even more bright and airy by the large bay window, a fully fitted kitchen with plenty of storage and separate dining area as well as access to the shared rear garden.
