This attractive four bedroom Edwardian house is located in a highly sought after road just a short distance from Northfields Tube Station.

The property is a fantastic size, with the ground floor incorporating a large reception room and an extended fully fitted kitchen diner with plenty of storage. The bi-folding doors lead out on to the well maintained private garden. On the first floor of the house there are three good size double bedrooms and a family bathroom, with the en-suite master bedroom on the second floor. The property is bright, spacious and contemporary while still maintaining an abundance of character. Walpole and Lammas Parks are close by, along with all the shops and cafés that Northfield Avenue has to offer.
