SILVESTER HOUSE, 15 BUTTGARDEN STREET, BIDEFORD, EX39 2AU GUIDE £299,950

Situated within walking distance of the town centre, a substantial Grade II listed 6 bedroom terraced house providing spacious accommodation over 3 floors and offering great potential as a large primary residence, dual occupancy dwelling or multi occupancy investment.

Silvester House is steeped in local history, having been the home and work place of T.L. Hamlyn & Sons, the esteemed, award winning local designers and decorators.

The original shop front remains complete with gilded signage and mosaic patterned floor whilst the left hand reveal features a large, art nouveau style painting, know locally as the lady in green, signed Bert Hamlyn 1912.

Beyond the attractive façade is the spacious accommodation will be found over 3 floors with many remaining character features including original tiles in the entrance hall together with numerous mouldings, cornices, decorative ceilings & fireplaces.

The abundance of rooms provides great possibilities and would comfortably accommodate a large or multi generation family whilst there is also scope for investors seeking a dwelling for multi occupancy.

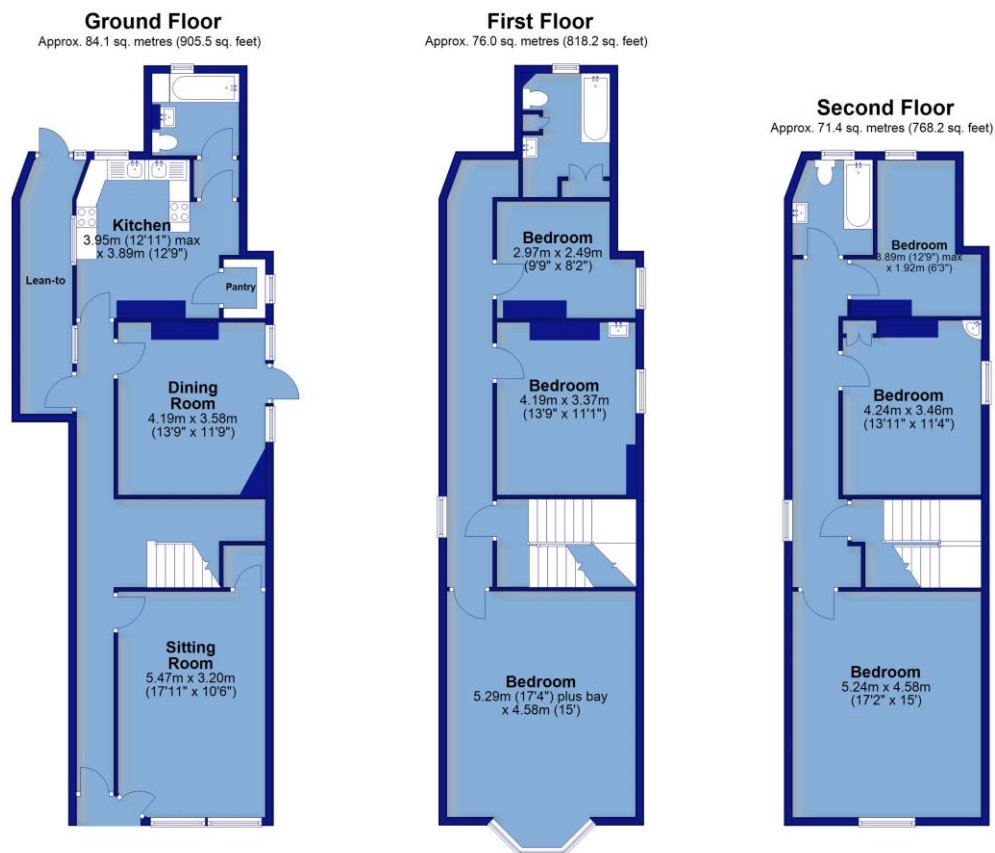

The most recent usage has catered for multi occupancy with there being a HMO Licence and all necessary alterations in place including the installation of fire doors and other relevant safety measures.

Fundamentally a 6 bedroom, 2 reception room house with 3 bathrooms arranged over each floor, this imposing property will no doubt capture the imagination.

Externally there are courtyards with a west facing aspect plus useful storage and WC.

The town centre is within a short walk whilst parking is available on road together with car parks nearby on Honestone Street & Bridge Street
