Grove Road

This three-bedroom home, set on an excellent sized plot, offers a unique opportunity for those with a vision to create their dream property. A blank canvas brimming with potential, the ground floor features three versatile rooms alongside a convenient WC.

Flooded with natural light, these spaces can be reconfigured to suit your preferences, whether you're looking to create open-plan living areas or maintain separate zones for dining, relaxation, or work. The current layout requires some modernisation, with no existing bathroom in its configuration, but offers endless possibilities for customisation.

Outside, the property continues to impress with its substantial frontage, ample parking and a garage. The rear garden is equally generous, offering space for entertaining, gardening, or future expansion, subject to planning permission (STPP).

This is an ideal purchase for investors or buyers seeking a prime location and the chance to craft a home perfectly tailored to their needs. Whether you're looking to extend, redesign, or simply add value, this property provides the foundations to bring your vision to life.
