In detail

A light, bright and neatly presented one bedroom period conversion boasting a private rear garden and conveniently positioned for transport links.

Upgraded by the current owner, this tastefully finished property boasts 746 sq ft / 69.3 sq m and offers comfortable accommodation for immediate enjoyment. The kitchen has been thoughtfully modernised to make the most of the available space and includes ample work and storage areas which are perfect for those who are seeking a quality place for meal preparation or culinary innovations. The bathroom has been pleasantly finished to include a rainfall shower, white sanitary ware, and a handy recess to house a washing machine, whilst the reception room boasts a sunny south-westerly aspect with room to dine. The generous bedroom is at the rear of the building and overlooks lush greenery and the garden, whilst also benefitting from a walk-in wardrobe that makes for a clutter-free zone. Further benefits include an internal staircase which adds a sense of space, attic storage, and a very long lease. Externally the garden is maturely planted with a shed and offers a private relaxing sanctuary to enjoy with family and friends, or a good book.

Anerley Road is well placed for multiple nearby amenities, as well as Anerley, Crystal Palace, and both Penge East and West rail links. Open green spaces are easily accessible and include parkland opposite, or nearby Crystal Palace Park.
