In Detail

A unique one bedroom property with a private garden centrally located just off of the Crystal Palace Triangle, close to a wealth of amenities and transport links.

This eco-friendly home is one of two that were build completed just five years ago as new additions, quietly positioned at the rear of an attractive detached Victorian property. The contemporary accommodation is accessed via a private entrance and benefits from high quality engineered timber flooring and oak internal doors. The bedroom is calm a relaxing space with fitted storage and a door to allow for a through-breeze in summer months. The bathroom has been fully tiled and boasts premium fittings and a rainfall shower, whilst the living area is sociably open-plan with double doors to outside. The kitchen is a white high gloss finish with integrated Siemens appliances, technical stone surfaces, with both undercounter and plinth lighting. Externally there is a low maintenance walled private courtyard garden with secure gated side access - ideal for enjoying sunny summer days.

Church Road is well placed for a host of independent shopping a leisure options, including an Everyman cinema which is on the road. Also, Westow Park and both Crystal Palace and Gipsy Hill rail stations which offer connections to Victoria, London Bridge, and Canada Water.
