In Detail

This neatly presented modern one-bedroom apartment recently renovated comes with no onward chain and is set on a very quiet residential side road.

Just a short walk from Crystal Palace with lively independent cafes, restaurants, shops, and farmers markets. It is well placed for transport links, within close proximity to Gipsy Hill, Anerley and Crystal Palace stations (25mins to London Bridge, Victoria and Blackfriars).

The apartment is part of a well maintained detached Victorian conversion with high ceilings and oak wooden shutters. The kitchen is thoughtfully designed with built in storage space and room for a dish washer. There is a separate large living room and dining area, which overlook the spacious rear garden, perfect for entertaining friends and family.

The calm and tranquil double bedroom is complemented by a bathroom with attractive tiling, a full size bath and a dual rainfall shower. The versatile hallway doubles as a study area or storage space.

This is a well-finished home in a sought-after part of South London, ideal for first-time buyers, professionals, or anyone looking for a quiet, well-connected location with plenty of local amenities.
