In Detail

An exceptionally well finished five bedroom, three bathroom mid-century townhouse forming a small terrace overlooking Long Meadow, at the preferred end of Gipsy Hill.

This beautifully finished property is one of the finest examples that we have seen and offers an excellent arrangement of space through modification and remodelling, combining elegant taste with decor that is sympathetic to the period of build. The entrance level comprises of a 26ft kitchen / diner with an abundance of work and storage space, W/C, and a smart sliding door that provides a picture window to a lush, mature garden. The first floor is arranged as an 18ft reception room with stunning solid wood parquet flooring, bespoke cabinetry, and large windows overlooking the meadow. Also, a double bedroom with a smart en suite rainfall shower room. The second floor is a luxury bathroom with striking slate grey tiling and a freestanding tub, as well as two double bedrooms with fitted storage, and a study. The top floor houses a very pleasant master or guest suite with sunny skylights, ample eaves storage, and an en suite shower room.

Externally the garden has been cultivated to include mature planting and a slate seating area - a private oasis for those taking advantage of the south-westerly aspect on summer days.

This location works well for access to Dulwich College, Dulwich Prep London, both Kingswood and Paxton primaries (Ofsted outstanding), the vibrant Crystal Palace Triangle, Norwood Park, and West Dulwich.

A unique property that affords a very comfortable and enjoyable long-term new home.

No onward chain.
