In Detail

A characterful two-bedroom, hall-floor period conversion with direct access to the shared garden. Ideally positioned on a highly desirable road, directly opposite the lower lake of Crystal Palace Park, with direct views of the Grade I listed dinosaurs.

This rarely available style of property benefits from high ceilings and an abundance of original features, creating a warm and inviting home. The reception room extends to an impressive 17ft 8in and features large sash windows with original wooden shutters, allowing excellent natural light throughout. A beautiful fireplace provides a striking focal point to the room.

The kitchen is partially open-plan, lending well to social living, and offers generous storage alongside quartz work surfaces. The larger bedroom features a floor-to-ceiling window, while the second bedroom provides direct access to the communal garden via a private staircase. Additional benefits include a share of the freehold and no onward chain.

The location is highly regarded, offering convenient access to Penge East and Penge West rail and overground services, as well as Crystal Palace and Anerley stations. Crystal Palace Park, directly opposite, spans approximately 200 acres of green space and hosts a popular weekly food market along with a variety of events throughout the year.
