Overall Description

This is a detached 1950's bungalow that was extended to add two more bedrooms in the 1960's and sits down a quiet cul-de-sac on the edge of the Essex village of Halls Green. This well-presented property now has four double bedrooms (one currently used as a dining room), a family bathroom, entrance hall, sitting room, conservatory, modern kitchen and utility - so there is plenty of well laid out living accommodation making it ideal, either as a family home - or for couples looking for a spacious bungalow to retire to. The gardens are a particular feature of this property as they are large, mature and well-stocked, so if you love gardening, this property could be for you. The property is set back from the lane by an attractive front garden which has a good-sized private driveway with plenty of parking and turning space. If you are looking to live in a more peaceful, rural location yet still be close to excellent local amenities and transport links, then viewing is highly recommended, so please call to arrange a visit at your convenience.

Location

This property sits down a quiet cul-de-sac on the edge of Halls Green which lies just outside the picturesque Essex village of Roydon. Roydon has the river Stort running through its centre with its marina and riverside restaurant. It lies on the Stort Navigation System linking Bishops Cleeve to the River Lea. The village has a village shop, post office, pharmacy, two pubs, Grade II Listed church (St Peter's), village hall, cricket pitch, football club, tennis courts and Primary School. Roydon railway station is on the West Anglia main line linking Liverpool Street and Cambridge. The village is only a short drive from the shopping and other amenities of Harlow, Hoddesdon and Epping and is surrounded by beautiful open countryside, so ideal for keen cyclists or walkers.
