Overall Description

This is a 1950's semi-detached bungalow in a pleasant residential location close to the centre of the popular coastal village of Birchington-on-Sea. The property has an entrance porch, hallway, two double bedrooms, bathroom with bath and shower cubicle, sitting room, kitchen and large conservatory to the rear overlooking the garden. The property has gas central-heating (with new Worcester Bosch boiler) and double-glazed windows but would benefit from some internal modernisation. Outside, there is a private driveway, garage and good-sized front and back gardens which have been largely paved, interspersed with flowerbeds, for easy maintenance. We are selling this bungalow with a GUIDE PRICE RANGE of £400,000-£410,000 and with no onward chain.

Location

Birchington-on-Sea is a village on the north coast of Kent, situated between Margate and Herne Bay, and popular both for holiday makers and also for Londoners seeking to live in a more peaceful coastal location that is also withing easy commuting distance from the City. The property is a short walk from the centre of the village with its shops, pubs, restaurants and other amenities. It is a similar short distance for the railway station, on the Chatham Main Line, with its trains along the coast from Ramsgate to London Victoria. Minnis Bay is within walking distance, a popular family beach with attractions such as sailing, windsurfing, cafes, beach huts, public houses, restaurants, a children's playground, a paddling pool and coastal walking/cycling routes (it has also gained a European Blue Flag Award for its cleanliness and safety). The village has three other smaller beaches, which are surrounded by chalk cliffs and cliff stacks. There are excellent sporting and leisure activities in the local area including sailing, water sports, angling, football and golf (the Westgate and Birchington Golf Club is on the cliff tops just along the coast).
