Overall Description

This is a very well-presented semi-detached house that has been tastefully up-dated and modernised by its current owners to create a comfortable and stylish family home. The property is in good decorative order throughout and has all new Upvc double-glazed windows and gas central-heating that is serviced annually by British Gas. Upstairs, the house has three bedrooms, two doubles and a single, as well as a modern bathroom. Downstairs there is an entrance porch leading to an open-plan sitting/dining room with wooden parquet flooring and coal-effect gas fire, as well as a contemporary kitchen. To the front of the house is a brick-paved driveway with a side gate leading to a pleasant and private back garden. From here, a gate leads to the garage, which is en-block with a separate entrance via the neighbouring street. This house is being sold with no onward chain, so if you are looking for a nicely presented and modern family home, ideally located for schools and other amenities, then viewing is highly recommended.

Location

The property sits in a family friendly cul-de-sac location in the Hertfordshire town of Cheshunt, so close to an excellent choice of local shops and other amenities along the High Street, just a short walk away. There are several very good schools locally, including three just a five minute's walk away (Burliegh Primary School, Arlesdene Nursery and Cocos Pre-School) with other excellent choices in the area such as Cheshunt School, Goffs School, and St Marys. The property is close to good road and rail links with Cheshunt and Theobald's Grove railway stations providing regular trains to London Liverpool Street (c.30 mins) and the A10 giving fast access to the M25, London and beyond. Just up the A10 is the The Brookfield Shopping Centre (M&S, Tesco, Next, etc.). Also close-by is the Laura Trott Leisure Centre (swimming pool, tennis, squash, gym) and the Lea Valley Whitewater Centre (built for the 2012 Olympics) is just a short drive away. There is plenty of beautiful Hertfordshire countryside close to hand, making this is an ideal location for active families that love the outdoors.
