Overall Description

This modern first floor apartment sits in a pleasant leafy location just a short walk from local amenities and the station. It has recently been upgraded inside, fully decorated and with new carpets in the bedroom, hall and reception and new vinyl flooring in the kitchen and bathroom. The apartment has a good-sized sitting room, double bedroom, kitchen with fitted white/brown goods and modern bathroom. The property is double-glazed with wall-mounted electric heaters and has the benefit of a long 999 year lease, with no ground rent to pay. There are communal gardens to the front and rear as well as a communal car-park. If you are looking for an apartment close to transport links, or a good buy-to-let investment, then viewing is recommended. The apartment is being sold with no chain. Probate has been granted. We have an Open House booked on Saturday 19th October from 11.15am to 12 noon, so please call to book a viewing.

Location

This recently updated apartment sits around a five minute walk from Theobalds Grove train station, which is part of the TFL London Overground system (Oyster Zone 7), with regular services to London Liverpool Street (c.36 minutes) and Seven Sisters (c.17 Minutes). The M25 is also under a five minute drive away down the A10, making this the perfect property for busy commuters. The apartment is in a pleasant residential area, only a short walk away from good High Street shops including Tesco Express and a short drive from the Pavilions shopping centre, the Tesco Super-Store in Waltham Abbey and the Brookfield Shopping Centre (M&S, Tesco, Next, etc). The beautiful Cedars Park with its play maze and ponds is a ten to fifteen minute walk and the Laura Trott Leisure Centre (swimming pool, tennis, squash, gym) and the Lea Valley Whitewater Centre (Olympic venue) are a short drive away.
