Overall Description

This large and impressive detached house, set well back from the road in a good-sized plot, was built in 1970 to a Queen Anne style, typical of many of the grand homes in this exclusive part of North London. Upstairs the property has four bedrooms and two bathrooms, one being en-suite to the master bedroom. Downstairs there is a spacious entrance hall, cloakroom, large dual-aspect sitting room with French doors out to the garden, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room and boot room/utility. To the side of the house is the large double garage and workshop. The property would benefit from internal modernisation and also offers considerable scope for extension and remodelling should buyers so wish, subject to the usual consents. Outside there is a large driveway with ample parking space and a side gate leading to a good-sized and surprisingly private garden, with large patio, central lawn and mature trees. If you are looking for a large family home with great potential, close to excellent local amenities, schools and transport links in one of the more sought after locations in the area, then viewing is highly recommended. The property is being sold with no onward chain.

Location

The property sits in a prestigious position opposite Monken Hadley Common and Hadley Woods, so with wide open green spaces and beautiful woodland walks right on your doorstep it is the ideal location for a growing family. The property has excellent transport links close to hand, with Hadley Wood and New Barnet mainline stations providing regular services to Kings Cross via Finsbury Park, High Barnet tube station at the end of the Northern Line and Cockfosters tube station at the end of the Piccadilly line. The M25 and A1 are just a short drive away, making this an excellent location for professional family buyers that need to commute. Hadley Highstone and High Barnet are walking distance with a very good range of local and High Street shops, supermarkets, pubs and restaurants including the Spire Shopping Centre. There are further local shops by the station in Hadley Wood. There are very good schools in the local area including the Monken Hadley CofE Primary School, Cromer Road Primary School, the Mount House School and Queen Elizabeth's Boys and Girls Schools. There are excellent golf courses in the immediate area including Hadley Wood, Old Fold Manor and The Shire London, while other local sports clubs include the Hadley Wood Tennis Club and Monken Hadley Cricket Club.
