Overall Description

This tunnel-linked terrace house has been extended and completely modernised by its current owners to create a spacious, light and contemporary family home that is beautifully appointed throughout. No stone has been left in the improvements which include a brand new bathroom (2024), new double-glazed windows and doors (2019), new boiler, all new flooring downstairs with under-floor heating in three zones, new carpets upstairs, fully landscaped back garden with garden studio/annexe, new driveway and new electrics with chrome points with USB ports. However the biggest transformation is with the addition of a large rear extension to create a superb open-plan kitchen/dining/family room with French doors out into the garden, undoubtedly now the heart of this magnificent home. Upstairs there are three bedrooms, two good-sized doubles, as well as that brand new bathroom. Downstairs there is the entrance hallway with fitted under-stairs utility cupboard, cloakroom, sitting room with open-fireplace and then the open-plan kitchen/dining/family room with feature flame-effect electric fireplace and French doors to the low-maintenance garden. There is ample parking on the brick-paved driveway and a gate leads to a tunnel giving access to the back garden which contains the fully insulated and double-glazed garden studio/annexe, perfect for use as a spill-over bedroom or perhaps a home office.. If you are looking for a large and very modern family home in an excellent village location then viewing is highly recommended.
