Overall Description

This is a modern terraced house that has two bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor, with one bedroom having been sub-divided to create a home office. Downstairs there is an entrance hall, kitchen and sitting/dining room with door out to the garden. The property has gas central-heating and double-glazed windows. There is a small low-maintenance area of front garden with a good-sized garden to the rear. This comprises a patio, with electric awning above, central lawn, flowerbeds and a garden shed. The property is being sold with no onward chain and probate is granted. Early viewing is recommended, so please call to book an appointment.

Location

This property sits in a quiet residential cul-de-sac in West Croydon, an area popular with first-time-buyers and young professionals looking for somewhere with good transport links to central London. West Croydon station is less than ten minutes walk away, which is the southern terminus of the Windrush Line, with regular services to London Bridge, London Victoria and Highbury & Islington. The house is also within walking distance to the tram line. There are excellent local and High street shops just south of the station and local schools include the Harris Invictus Academy Croydon, the Loving Hands Christ Church Pre-School and the Al-Khair Primary School. Wandle Park is a ten minute walk away with its green open spaces, play area, pavillion, cafe and skate park.
