Overall Description

FOR SALE BY AUCTION: This property is being sold by auction from 10am on December the 11th with our auction partners, Network Auctions, so please register on their website (www.networkauctions.co.uk) - see full auction details below. This is a first floor apartment in this 1950's property situated opposite Morden Park Golf Course, over which it has views, and which would benefit from modernisation. The apartment has a staircase leading to its own front door which opens into the entrance hall, sitting room with wall-mounted electric fire and the kitchen. There are two double bedrooms at the rear overlooking the garden and a shower-room. The property has gas central-heating and double-glazed windows. To the rear is a private garden with timber decking. The property is being sold with no chain and has a long lease of around 110 years. We have Open Days booked from 10am to 11am on Saturday the 15th and 29th of November so please call to register to attend.
