Overall Description

This is a 1930's semi-detached bungalow in a sought-after and quiet cul-de-sac, yet only a short walk from the shops along Darkes Lane as well as the railway station. The property has three bedrooms (two good doubles), a bathroom, entrance hall, sitting room, and kitchen. The bungalow is double-glazed and has gas central-heating, with many of its period features intact (fireplaces, original doors, picture rails). Although it is in need of from internal modernisation. it does offer buyers scope to extend to the rear and/or into the loft as others have in the area (subject to the usual consents), allowing you to create your dream home to your own tastes. The property has a large 75' garden to the rear, with plenty of space to add a garden room/studio if desired. There is also a good-sized drive to the front with plenty of parking and turning space, with a car-port to the side. This bungalow is being sold with no onward chain and probate has been granted. Location

This bungalow is located in a quiet residential location, just a short walk from the high street shops along Darkes Lane as well as Potters Bar Railway Station, with its regular fast trains to London Kings Cross and Finsbury Park. Potters Bar has a very good range of local shops and other amenities and is also home to some very well regarded schools at all levels including the the Dame Alice Owen School, which is just a short walk away. There are good sporting and other facilities locally, including an indoor swimming pool and golf clubs in both Potters Bar and Brookmans Park, just up the road. It is very convenient for commuters with the station and also close proximity to the M25, A1 and A10. The town is surrounded by beautiful Hertfordshire countryside so the location is ideal for keen walkers and cyclists.
