Grimston is a sought-after village situated around 6 miles to the East of King's Lynn and forms part of a group with neighbouring Congham, Roydon and Pott Row. These villages provide residents with a range of local amenities including shop, Post Office, doctors surgery, pubs, butchers and spa hotel at Congham Hall. The area is surrounded by delightful countryside with various local walking spots on the doorstep including NWT Roydon Common and Royal Sandringham, both only a short drive away. The famous North Norfolk coastline with its broad, sandy beaches and secluded villages is also within easy reach via the A149 coast road. King's Lynn offers a further range of amenities both in the town centre and Hardwick Retail Park which is well stocked with supermarkets and large retailers. The town centre benefits from a mainline railway station offering a direct route to London Kings Cross via the cities of Ely & Cambridge. Church Cottage is a most attractive carrstone and pantiled residence on the edge of Grimston village adjacent to St Botolphs Church. Well set back from Gayton Road, the property has a large frontage and is approached via a gated gravel driveway which provides a good level of screening and privacy. Internally, the property offers well laid out accommodation with Breakfast Kitchen, Living Room, Conservatory, 2 Double Bedrooms and a generous Shower Room. Having been well maintained, there are also the additions of modern UPVC double glazing, solar panels which are owned, electric ceiling heating and a boarded loft with power & 2 skylight windows.
