North & South Wootton are popular residential locations due to their village feel whilst being conveniently positioned around 4 miles to the North of King's Lynn. The area is well served by a variety of amenities including primary schools, doctors surgery, pharmacy, mini-market and village hall to name a few. Further amenities are available in the historic market town of King's Lynn town with a range of independent and national retailers along with restaurants and cafes, several of which overlook one of the two large market squares and quayside. Set just on the edge of King's Lynn is the useful Hardwick Retail Park boasting large supermarkets, national clothing, homeware and DIY retailers. Being within North West Norfolk, the delightful coastline well known for its broad skies and sandy beaches is within easy reach. The nearest seaside town of Hunstanton is around a 20 minute drive via the A149 passing the Royal Sandringham Estate and pretty conservation village of Castle Rising. For those requiring access to London, King's Lynn benefits from a mainline railway direct to London Kings Cross via Ely & Cambridge. The nearby cities of Norwich & Peterborough can also be easily accessed via the A47 trunk road, both around 1 hour away. 137a Nursery Lane comes to the market offering a generous sized, extended family house in one of North Woottons most sought after locations. The accommodation extends to around 2,600sqft and is well set up for modern family living. The impressive, open plan kitchen dayroom is a particular feature with large sliding patio doors opening out to the West facing garden and patio, an ideal place for socialising. To the first floor, four double bedrooms can be found accessed off a central galleried landing with the main bedroom boasting its own balcony and ensuite. Viewing is highly recommended.
