Located on Checker Street, a conservation area within the popular "Friars", is this deceptively spacious 3 bedroom terrace house. Known as "Bay Tree House", the property is understood to date back to the early – mid 1800's and features an attractive front façade faced in Flemish bond brickwork with large sash windows. There is a generous amount of well laid out accommodation on offer extending to C.1,300 sqft with tall ceilings throughout including a 22' breakfast kitchen with contemporary fitted units, a larger than average bathroom with fitted four piece suite and useful utility area with WC to the ground floor. Externally to the rear of the property, there is a low maintenance courtyard garden which enjoys a West facing aspect, ideal for summer evenings. The front of the property is set back from Checker Street with a walled and gated frontage along with a delightful, mature bay tree adding to the properties curb appeal. Only a short ½ mile walk to the town centre, this is a most convenient position for access to all amenities. The town of King's Lynn is steeped in history, dating back to the 12th century and once part of the Hanseatic League. Situated on the bank of the River Great Ouse, the town is well known for its two impressive market squares, South Quay and picturesque "Walks" park. The town well serves its local residents with a variety of shopping amenities both on the high street and the nearby Hardwick Retail Park situated on the Southern outskirts of the town. There is a mainline railway station direct to London Kings Cross via Ely & Cambridge along with frequent bus routes from the towns bus station. There are good road links including the A47 to Norwich & Peterborough, A10 to Ely & Cambridge and A17 to Lincolnshire. The renowned North Norfolk coastline is only a short drive away via the nearby seaside town of Hunstanton and Royal Sandringham Estate which is around 20 minutes by car.

NOTE: The property has been let out for a number of years. Usual steps are in motion for vacant possession – further details available from the agents.
