

PALMYRA, WINSPIT ROAD, WORTH MATRAVERS
£895,000 Freehold

This substantial detached bungalow is situated in a peaceful and secluded location on Winspit Road, in a fine semi-rural position on the south-western outskirts of the village and enjoys views over open country to the sea in the distance. It is thought to have been built in 1986 and is of traditional cavity construction, with external elevations of natural Purbeck stone under a concrete interlocking tiled roof.

“Palmyra” stands in a large garden which extends to just under a quarter of an acre and offers stylish, immaculately presented spacious and versatile accommodation with views over open country to the Jurassic Coast, and has potential for further extension. It also has the considerable advantage of solar panels and a Shepherd’s Hut which is ideal for Airbnb use creating a home with income.

Worth Matravers stands on a headland about 1 mile from the sea and is nationally renowned for its scenic beauty. The area is particularly known as a haven for walkers and naturalists and has remained completely unspoilt over the years. Four miles to the East is the seaside resort of Swanage, and the market town of Wareham is some 9 miles distant, the latter having a main line rail link to London Waterloo (some 2.5 hours). Much of the area is classified as being of Outstanding Natural Beauty and incorporates a World Heritage Coastline.
