

12 BELL STREET, SWANAGE
£290,000 Freehold

This Grade II terraced cottage is situated in one of the oldest parts of Swanage close to open country, local amenities and schools, and approximately one mile from the town centre. It was built during the late 19th Century, with a small extension in recent years. It is built of natural Purbeck stone, the small extension being cement rendered.

12 Bell Street offers spacious accommodation arranged over three floors, the terraced cottage is well presented throughout and is within easy reach of the Jurassic coast.

Swanage lies at the Eastern tip of the Isle of Purbeck delightfully situated between the Purbeck Hills. It has a fine, safe, sandy beach, and is an attractive mixture of old stone cottages and more modern properties, all of which blend in well with the peaceful surroundings. To the South is Durlston Country Park renowned for being the gateway to the Jurassic Coast and World Heritage Coastline.
