GARDEN

The property sits in a mature landscaped gardens of 0.3 acres. Access is via a wide tarmac driveway with parking for two or three cars as which leads to the garage. To either side of the garage is a further stone chip parking area providing space for caravan or boat.

The front garden is a quintessentially English cottage style garden with stone chip, brick edged paths running between mature flower and shrub beds with a wide range of roses, shrubs and perennial flowers. To the one side is a formal lawn and the other side a box hedged geometric kitchen garden. A gated path leads from Yewleigh Lane to the front door. Accessed from the study is a brick paved private seating area hidden by climbing roses and vines.

To the rear of the garage is a low maintenance entertaining area with brick built barbeque, raised ornamental pond, perfect space for a hot tub, and space for a table and chairs, a paved path continues from here to the rear garden.

The long private rear garden is mostly laid to lawn. Accessed from the family room is a wide paved seating area with space for table and chairs, a path leads from here to a rear vegetable patch with stone paths between shaped beds and arbour seat looking over. To the other side is an enclosed little haven. A 2.76m x 2m timber frame shed looks over its own patio and lawn with flower and shrub beds providing a wonderful haven away from the main house.

Also contained within the rear garden is a brick built privy house, the toilet has been removed, and this provides a very useful timber store.
