GARDEN

The property sits in a landscaped garden all designed to take maximum advantage of the views and to provide a range of outside seating and entertaining areas. Accessed from either the Lamb Bank pathway by gated steps, or via the driveway to the rear, which has parking for two cars, gated steps lead to the front of the property. A pathway continues all the way around the property which to the west side has a paved seating area, shaded by mature trees and a space for table and chairs for outside dining and entertaining. A slightly raised seating area with stone chip provides a further space for a bench to sit and enjoy the views from under the shade of a mature fig tree. The majority of the garden this side is laid to mature shrubs and specimen trees, a concrete pathway passes along both sides of the property leading to the other East side of the garden. Here there is a further paved area and low maintenance grasses bed. Overlooking this and with a north westerly view is a large covered entertaining space with power points (with USB), dimmable wall light points, paved floor, wood burner and plenty of space for tables and chairs for outside dining and entertaining whatever the weather. To the rear of this is a secure garden store with power and light points ideal for storing furniture and garden tools, running around to the rear of the property is a raised area of flower and shrub beds with further specimen trees, accessed via steps just beyond the covered entertaining area. From numerous positions in the garden there are plenty of places to sit and enjoy the panoramic views, across Worcestershire, including Suckley Hills, Clee Hills and in Autumn and Winter when the leaves are off the trees to Worcester and the Cathedral.

DIRECTIONS
