Guide Price £270,000

About This Property

GUIDE PRICE £270,000 - £290,000. This well presented period-style semi-detached house is situated at the end of a quiet road in Basford and is being sold with no upward chain. Offering a blend of traditional features and modern living, this home boasts two double bedrooms and a converted loft space with French doors that open onto a balcony, providing a unique outdoor space.

Upon entering, you are greeted by an inviting entrance hall with period-style tiled flooring. The lounge showcases a period-style fireplace with an open grate and benefits from windows on two elevations, filling the room with natural light. The kitchen features solid timber units, wooden worktops, a Belfast sink, space for a range cooker, and original-style tiled flooring, perfect for those who appreciate craftsmanship and character. The open-plan dining room leads into a conservatory with tiled flooring and French doors opening to the rear garden, creating a seamless flow for entertaining.

The converted cellar has been transformed into a cosy cinema room, complete with laminate flooring, an original cold slab, and two windows that allow natural light to pour in. On the first floor, the bathroom includes a white suite with a roll-top bath and shower attachment for a touch of luxury.

Additional benefits include gas central heating, UPVC double glazing, and convenient off-road parking through double gates leading to a driveway and a garage. The enclosed rear garden is designed for ease of maintenance, with decking, raised borders, and a section laid with slate chippings, perfect for relaxing or outdoor dining.

This property offers a rare combination of period charm and modern functionality, making it a must-see for anyone seeking a unique and stylish home in Basford.
