Location

Eversley is a charming and highly sought-after Hampshire village that perfectly balances peaceful countryside living with excellent local connections. Known for its leafy surroundings, open green spaces, and strong sense of community, it is a place where people come to settle and stay. Whether taking a walk through Eversley Common, enjoying local pubs such as The Chequers or The Tally Ho, or simply appreciating the quiet, well-kept streets, the village offers a relaxed yet well-connected lifestyle. For families, the area benefits from well-regarded local schools, including Charles Kingsley's Primary School, along with an abundance of countryside walks and cycle routes right on the doorstep. Despite its village atmosphere, Eversley is conveniently positioned for commuters, with nearby Fleet and Wokingham train stations providing direct links to London, as well as easy access to the M3 and M4 motorways.

Description

Waterfords are delighted to present to the market this stunning two-bedroom end-of-terrace property. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall with a downstairs cloakroom, a living room, and a fully refitted kitchen/breakfast room with views over the rear garden. The first floor features two bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a refitted shower room. Externally, the property benefits from a driveway providing off-street parking in front of the garage. Additional parking spaces are available within the communal car park adjacent to the green, just a few metres from the property. To the rear of the house is a generous, well-maintained garden with a southerly aspect, including a patio area ideal for entertaining.
