Mountfield 74 Fitzroy Street, Sandown, Isle of Wight, PO36 8HG

£599,950

This beautiful detached family home is full of character and charm, created in part by its welcoming hallway, the magnificent tall ceilings and period fireplaces. The home is complemented with fantastic sized rooms, with the front offering bay windows and at the rear (overlooking the garden) is the stunning and very social kitchen/breakfast room. These are just a few aspects to explore as only when viewing can you fully appreciate what this fantastic home has to offer.

If you are also looking for generous outside garden space and far reaching sea views then look no further, this is truly a wonderful lifestyle property, with its location just minutes from the town centre, local amenities, transport links and glorious sandy beaches, they all add to the home's appeal.

With separate outside seating areas and the fabulous roof terrace balcony that overlooks the large garden (along with the views), they add those subtle but most important differences that distinguishes this home from others. With off road parking, a large detached garage and the delightful summerhouse at the end of the garden, what is not to like? Please contact Wrights to discuss this home in more detail and to arrange your viewing today.
