28 Albert Road, Shanklin, Isle of Wight, PO37 7NS

£450,000

This is a wonderfully presented family home, which offers flexible accommodation depending on the new owners needs. Located in a popular residential road, close to the local transport facilities, the high street, and within walking distance of Shanklin Old Village. If you are searching for a large home or requiring room for a relative/elderly parents with a ground floor bedroom benefiting from a shower room, then this could be very suitable indeed. With its easy access from the main home it also has its own entrance door to the front of the property. Alternatively, the flexibility of either working from home or those seeking extra space for hobbies will certainly find this a home to consider.

There is off road parking to the front and the delightful rear garden is of a generous size, with a large patio and separate seating areas to enjoy. The overall presentation, colour schemes and layout of this period property must be seen to be fully appreciated, please don't delay and contact our Shanklin branch to arrange your viewing today.
