£550,000

This attractive DETACHED home has been thoughtfully extended to provide a stylish family space coupled with hugely flexible accommodation. The interior layout includes traditional separate reception rooms as well as a large open plan kitchen/dining/living space which seamlessly connects to the sizeable rear lawn and terrace. The extensive kitchen range is handmade in solid wood and incorporates a central Island topped with a Corian worktop. The underfloor heated tiled floor flows through into the spacious 17'5 fully glazed conservatory flooded with natural light and overlooking the pretty garden. The study is the third of the reception rooms and this gives way to a ground floor double bedroom with en suite shower room which has been used to accommodate another generation of the same family which quite nicely highlights the afore mentioned 'flexibility' this substantial home affords. Upstairs and there are three further double bedrooms with the master being en suite and a separate family bathroom complete with bath and shower. The mature hedge/tree lined frontage is largely designed for parking purposes with a brick paved three car driveway. Partland's Avenue is a popular residential location close enough to the town to be convenient but equally far enough away to avoid the main throng of activity in the town centre. Ryde's unrivalled selection of individual retail shops and associated facilities are less than a mile away and just a few minutes by car. There are several schools in the area to suit all ages including Ryde Independent School, a highly regarded private school. You will be a few hundred yards from the local lawn tennis club and football pitches for hire. Buses pass at the end of the avenue and regular passenger options to Portsmouth Harbour and Southsea Promenade are found along Ryde's beachside Esplanade.
