Offers In The Region Of £182,500

A modern terraced home in a peaceful cul-de-sac position. This vacant property is situated in the popular Haylands suburb of Ryde towards its outskirts where the surrounding countryside comes into view. Built circa 1990, the layout favours a lounge/diner and separate kitchen arrangement with the benefit of a conservatory at the rear forming an additional reception room. Upstairs and there are two comfortable bedrooms to choose from and a bathroom for all to use. It is also the first floor where views towards the surrounding countryside can be seen. The property is now tired internally leaving plenty of scope for the new owner to finish in their own inimitable way. The rear garden sits to the sunny south side catching the sun throughout the day and this leaves the parking hardstand to the front. The nearest bus stops are in Bettsworth Road and the town centre is a 5-minute car journey away at most. Ryde has arguably one of the best selections of retail shops and services found anywhere on the Island. This coastal town is very well known for its sandy beaches, iconic pier and the convenience of regular passenger crossings to the mainland. Whether you are looking to downsize, purchase for the first time or looking to invest in a rental property, this house should feature high on your list.
