Offers In The Region Of £325,000

This substantial semi detached house is situated within the very heart of central Ryde. With generous accommodation spread over 4 storeys we believe this property offers tremendous flexibility of use. Over the last few decades the property has been used to generate an income stream whilst also offering the owner comfortable accommodation. Moving forward the options for use will depend on your needs as the new owner and we advise that you consider the appropriate planning regulations and consents that a listed building will attract. In its current form the property is divided into 3 flats although to make them individually self contained alterations and consents will be necessary. Subject to permissions, we feel the opportunities for this property could include an HMO, separate flats, a generous home, rental income plus owner accommodation or offices for professional services plus owner accommodation. Whatever the intended use of the building Ryde town provides an attractive selection of retail shops and services which will appeal to residents and tenants alike. Should the plan be to run a business from this property there is plenty of passing pedestrians and traffic to market your services to and Ryde has the highest population of any town on the Island which in excess of 30,000. Local transport links include both trains and buses with further direct connections to mainland Portsmouth and Southsea via high-speed passenger routes. Arrange a viewing via our Ryde office and let us see how this property could best suit your requirements.
