Offers In The Region Of £250,000

This Victorian semi detached house has been remodeled and extended over the years to create the tastefully appealing home we see today. Fresh new decor ensures this is a perfectly habitable home with the benefit of potential to modernise to meet your own tastes and requirements as and when it is affordable. The layout includes a sizeable entrance hall flowing through into the formal dining room. The lounge or 4th bedroom is separately towards the front of the ground floor and this leaves the kitchen and cloakroom/utility room to the sunny south side of the house. The generous garden is also south facing catching the best of the sun throughout the day and this is accessed via the kitchen's double doors. Upstairs and there are three comfortable bedrooms to choose from and a bathroom for all to use. This family orientated home is well placed for local bus routes, a recreation park and Ryde's newest junior school is literally at the end of the road. There is a convenience store on the way the main town centre where you will have quite an array of retail shops and facilities to frequent. Other than it's bustling town centre this coastal town of Ryde, is also well known for having miles of sandy beaches and iconic pier projecting out into The Solent. Local transport options are found along The Esplanade including regular high-speed connections to mainland Portsmouth and Southsea.
