£399,950

Set within a 1/5 of an acre plot this detached bungalow is a avid gardeners dream. Mature gardens and established borders and boundaries ensure a pleasant outlook from all rooms. The gardens are largely laid to lawn and there is a particularly secluded space to the rear of the offering the ideal spot grab yourself some peace and quiet. The bungalow sits back from the road leaving plenty of parking space and the garage plus home office to one side. The main entrance is nicely concealed to the southside of the property where you step into a generous central entrance hall from where all rooms are accessible. There is a spacious twin aspect lounge and a equally roomy kitchen/diner with a central breakfast bar. There are three bedrooms to choose from although currently the owner has opted to use the garden adjoining one as a formal dining room. The fully tiled bathroom includes a shower over the bath to cover all of your daily ablution requirements. The Ashley location is a suburb of Ryde situated towards its outskirts where the town begins to merge with the surrounding countryside. This will conveniently leave you a 5 minute drive from the town centre and up to 10 minutes from the local major supermarket although they do currently offer a home delivery service. From nearby Rosemary Lane you can jump onto the extensive footpath and bridleway network to explore as far afield as you have the energy for. The coastal town of Ryde is generally well known for its miles of sandy beaches, regular highspeed passenger connections to the mainland and of course its iconic pier. Ryde offers a comprehensive range of individual shops and services largely unrivalled across the Island and a mainland shopping trip can be as little as 12 minutes away.
